

DRAFT

The Economic Development Corporation of Clark County

Mission Statement

The Economic Development Corporation of Clark County (EDCCC) is a not –for-profit organization that is charged with directing the economic growth for Clark County.

The mission of the Economic Development Corporation of Clark County (EDCCC) is to secure opportunities for job creation with existing industries while expanding our job market by actively soliciting new industries to foster economic growth in Clark County.

Vision Statement

The Economic Development Corporation of Clark County seeks to create an exciting and vibrant 21st century business environment focused on technology, manufacturing, and value added forestry and both traditional and non-traditional small business expansion. The corporation will promote a diverse economy that strengthens and expands existing business and attracts new businesses to the area.